Hello Jesus, I'm sorry, I've been absolutely swamped and will be until at least early next week with court matters. I'm copying my new supervisor AUSA Myriam Fernandez on this email and perhaps if you can't wait until next week to speak with me you can speak directly with her before then. I've already briefed her on the situation.

Good morning Teresa. Please let us know where the Government stands. I was under the impression from last week's conversation and your subsequent email that we were going to hear back from you again last Friday. Please call me as soon as possible.
